

Season 1 Episode 23

The Ultimate Yin-Yang

In a new Ultraverse Monk outpost in a far remote reach of Ultraverse space, Ultraverse Monks perform scientific examinations on specimens found in the far end of the Ultraverse. Monks go over and install new technologies and they come up with strategic plans. Ivan is in a strategic planning room looking over plans. Ivan looks at a map of this region of Ultraverse space and he compares it to a map in his Yin-Yangite book. Ivan gives them both a stern look. Ivan said, "I think I'm on to something." Safron enters the room. Safron said, "Whatcha doing, Ivan?" Ivan said, "Do these maps look the same to you?" Ivan shows Safron the map in his book and the one on the screen. Safron said, "They look the same indeed." Ivan said, "That's what I thought." Safron said, "Did you find anything in our maps that is in the book?" Ivan said, "Since I was given this book from Star Monk, I have been fascinated with the concept of the Ultimate Yin-Yang. It is an orange and purple yin-yang that rests in an ancient temple on an obscure planet that is not recorded anywhere else but this book. Or at least that's what the book says. This Yin-Yang is supposed to be an awesome source of power that can only be utilized by Yin-Yangites. If I can find this power and learn how to utilize it, I can become one of the most powerful things in the Ultraverse and the Ultraverse will be at peace. I will end the Red Moon Monk civil war and all those other wars going on. I can find out what happened to my father and my quest will be complete." Safron said, "That's some pretty heavy stuff. I am sure you will find this yin-yang. Just don't let it overtake yourself. There may be a reason why it is kept in such an obscure part of the Ultraverse." Ivan said, "I may be destined to find it. We know there is something up with me and this may be it. I must know the truth."

A red-light flashes and a voice yells, "Intruders! Red Star Monks have entered the base. They are taking over." Ivan and Safron give each other looks and they head out into the hall. They see Red Star Monks fighting Ultraverse Monks and defeating them. Ivan and Safron draw out their swords and they go to fight the Red Star Monks. Ivan fights a few of them and he feels an attachment to the Ultimate Yin-Yang as he sees it appear in his mind and he suddenly gets a jolt. Ivan goes crazy and he fights off large swarms of Red Star Monks. Ivan and Safron plow through the Red Star Monks and they come across, Multisword. Multisword said, "Hello again, Ivan. How are you and your girlfriend doing?" Ivan said, "Safron is not my girlfriend." Multisword said, "I think she is. She is willing to do a lot for you. I bet she would go look for you if you ever got lost." Ivan and Safron duel Multisword. Ivan duels Multisword and Safron jumps on her skateboard and she skates away but Multisword uses one of his arms to knock Safron off her skateboard. Safron tries to escape and Multisword uses the sword in that arm to cut Safron's belt and her pants fall down revealing her blue and white polka dot boxers. Ivan is battling away at Multisword. Ivan jabs his sword into one of Multisword's arms and he jabs it deep in the small crevasse where his arm meets the urn. Ivan kicks Multisword in the face and Ivan beats up Multisword with his sword. Ivan said, "What are you made of?" Multisword said, "I have never seen you fight like that before." Ivan said, "I have never seen you directly attack a Monk base before." Multisword said, "I am full of surprises." A bunch of Red Star Monks show up and they grab Multisword and they carry him off. The base quakes and rumbles.

Ivan and Safron run out of the base and they see the Red Star Monks have their frigates surrounding the outpost and they launch volleys of weapons at it and they destroy the base. Ivan and Safron jump into Monk fighters and they fly off into Ultraverse Space. Red Star Monk fighters dogfight with them. The Red Star Monks use their frigates and they form a wall between Ivan and Safron. Ivan feels more attachment to the Ultimate Yin-Yang and he gets more visions of him becoming more powerful. Ivan said, "You regroup with the rest of the Monks. I have something else to take care of." Safron said, "I can't let you go." Ivan said, "Trust me with this one." Safron's fighter gets attacked and she zips off.

Ivan zips away from the lost Monk base and the Red Star Monks and he zips through strange colored swirls in Ultraverse Space. Ivan opens a map in the Monk fighter and he compares the map with what is shown in the book. Ivan said, "It looks like the Ultimate Yin-Yang is located at coordinates 7Z34." Ivan enters that into the starfighter and a message comes up on the computer screen that says, "Nothing exists at the desired coordinates. Do you still want to plot the course and proceed?" Ivan enters, "Y" and his fighter flies off to the coordinates.

Safron is back at the main Monk monastery and Dirk is at a table eating a cup of macaroni and cheese while slurping on a lymon soda. Dirk said, "Where's Ivan?" Safron said, "That's what concerns me. Ivan was going off about an Ultimate Yin-Yang and he said it was nearby the outpost. He said he had to know for sure if it was there and see if he can get power from it or something. I think something is off here." Dirk said, "Something sounds very off here. Ivan needs to learn to stop taking everything in that hokey book of his seriously. I know he's a Yin-Yang-whatever but he is still a Monk like us and he should still do the things we Monks are supposed to do." Safron said, "Exactly. You know I love Ivan and I support everything he likes but even then, he can go off the deep end. I think we should find out where he was going and maybe we should check on him. I think this may be part of a trap." Dirk said, "He has been known to run into traps, especially when it involves Yin-Yang stuff."

Ivan finds the planet and it is a purple and grey rocky surface. Ivan sees a large temple with a large Yin-Yang carved in stone on it. Ivan lands his fighter and he walks to the temple. Ivan enters the temple and he sees it is all dusty and it has ancient stone carvings on the wall. Ivan sees Yin-Yangite warriors carved in the stone. He sees a large head of a bearded Yin-Yangite. It shows chronology with other Yin-Yangites and it even has years carved in the wall. Ivan sees all kinds of warriors and the last one in the chronology is him. Ivan said, "Someone carved me in stone?" A booming voice said, "All the Yin-Yangites are carved in stone!" Ivan looks up and he sees the head of the bearded man hover above him. Ivan said, "Who are you?" The bearded man said, "You must know me. All of us are written in that book you carry with you." Ivan takes out the book and he finds the Yin-Yang chronology and the first one in there is Nimous. Ivan said, "Nimous?" Nimous said, "Of course I am. It took you a long time to figure that out." Ivan said, "How do you know who I am and how did you know I had this book on me?" Nimous said, "I know everything. I am the first Yin-Yangite. I have access to the Ultimate Yin-Yang which has immortalized me in this temple. Only the best Yin-Yangites can get immortalized in this temple. So far, I have been the only one to be immortalized. I can tell who deserves to be immortalized and you are next." Ivan said, "What does that mean?" Nimous said, "You can have the Ultimate Yin-Yang and all the power and knowledge it possesses. You are not like other Yin-Yangites. You are special. You are powerful. You can do a lot of good for the Ultraverse. I have done a lot of good for the Ultraverse."

Ivan is lead by Nimous to the Ultimate Yin-Yang. Nimous said, "This Ultimate Yin-Yang is the crown jewel of the Ultraverse. There is nothing in the Ultraverse more powerful than it. No one else would understand. It has such a power that most Yin-Yangites would not understand it. I know you would understand it. Don't you feel that you need to have it?" Ivan said, "I feel an urge to bond with this Ultimate Yin-Yang. I must know the truth. I must..." Nimous said, "Yes. Good. I feel what you are feeling. There is no feeling greater than that in the entire Ultraverse." Ivan walks up to the Ultimate Yin-Yang and he touches it and sparks and pulses fly through his arm and into his mind. Ivan ends up in a world that is plain white. Ivan said, "Where am I?" Nimous said, "You are now one with the Ultimate Yin-Yang. You can do anything you desire right in this location." Ivan said, "How do I do any of that?" Nimous said, "Use your mind. You can create anything you would ever want." Ivan said, "Where did my father run off too?" The answer flows into Ivan's mind. Ivan said, "That is where my father is." Nimous said, "Why go and visit your father when you can just bring him here instead." Ivan said, "I can do that?" Nimous said, "Of course you can. You can bring anyone or anything you want." Ivan brings his father into the white world. Ivan said, "Father?" Ivan's Father said, "I did the best for you son. I am proud of what you have become." Ivan said, "I have wondered where you went. They told me you were dead. I knew you were not dead. Who and what did this to you?" Ivan's Father said, "I have been trying to contact you but every time I try to send you something, it gets intercepted by Red Moon or Red Star Monks in that damned civil war they have going on. I think Multisword himself is behind this. He wants us to be apart and never see each other again.” Ivan gets an angered look on his face. Nimous appears on the side and he said, “Remember, you can bring anyone and anything you desire.” Ivan gets a devilish grin on his face and he makes Multisword appear.

Multisword said, “Where am I? Ivan, why are you here? Do you know what is going on?” Ivan said, “It is time for you to die now.” Ivan’s foot grows large and he stomps on Multisword and Multisword is broken into small particle fragments. Ivan said, “This feels awesome. I can get back at all the people that wronged me. I never felt a more satisfying feeling in my life.” Ivan brings Karen into the white world. Karen shows up and she said, “I was in the middle of reading my crime and punishment novel. What gives?” She sees Ivan. Karen said, “Oh, it is you, Ivan. You are just committing more crimes again. I will have you locked up. You will see.” Ivan said, “I don’t think that is going to happen.” Ivan snaps his fingers and throughout the Ultraverse, propaganda appears telling everyone that Karen is dumb and knows nothing and she just likes to talk crap about people.” Karen gets angry and then an angry mob surrounds her and they grab onto her and throw her in a cell in a remote hellish place. Nimous said, “I am proud of you, Ivan. You found a way to deal with all your problems.” Ivan said, “I don’t want to stay in this white world forever. I do have friends outside of this place.” Nimous said, “Remember what I told you? It is possible to bring any friends or anything here. You can make this place look as you want it.” Ivan turns the white world into a utopia. Safron and Dirk show up and Safron said, “This place is the best. I love this new world called, Ivantopia.” Dirk said, “This is the bomb. We can have all the cool stuff we want and never have to worry about bad guys anymore because you take care of them.” Ivan said, “Yeah. I do take care of all the bad guys in the Ultraverse.”

Safron and Dirk are in a Monk Transport flying through Ultraverse space. Safron is at the controls. Safron said, “With the coordinates from Ivan’s fighter in the database where all the records are kept, it says Ivan should be somewhere around here.” Dirk said, “What if we run into any more of Multisword’s Red Star Monks?” Safron said, “I plotted a course that would avoid them. I doubt we will be running into Multisword or any of his plans when we are there.” The transport zips through Ultraverse space and it finds the planet Ivan landed on. Safron said, “This must be where Ivan is.” Dirk said, “There’s a Monk Fighter parked there.” Safron said, “It is most likely Ivan’s.” Safron and Dirk leave the transport and they walk to the eerie temple. Dirk said, “Are you sure Ivan is in here?” Safron said, “A mostly barren planet, a large temple with Yin-Yangs sculpted on it. Where else would Ivan be?” Safron and Dirk enter the temple.

Safron and Dirk’s eyes go big when they step in the temple. Safron said, “Look at all this stuff.” Dirk said, “There are Yin-Yang people carved in these walls.” Dirk follows the chronology and he said, "Hey Safron! Look at this!" Safron sees Ivan carved in the wall. Safron said, "I see why Ivan was overly fascinated with finding this place." Nimous' voice booms over everything and he said, "Let your monk powers and skills betray you as the real power of the Yin-Yang can never be defeated!" Nimous' head hovers over Safron and Dirk.

Dirk said, "Who the hell are you?" Nimous said, "I am Nimous. I am the lead guardian of the Ultimate Yin-Yang. The Ultimate Yin-Yang is strictly off limits to anyone that is not a Yin-Yangite." Dirk punches his fist into his other hand and he said, "What did you do to Ivan?" Nimous said, "Ivan is finally in a moment of Zen which is something none of you would ever understand." Safron said, "Where is he?" Nimous said, "I cannot tell you that. It is pointless to try and get Ivan away from here. He loves it here and he will never leave under any circumstances." Safron said, "We are not leaving unless Ivan comes with us." Nimous said, "You will leave now." Dirk said, "Make us." Nimous said, "I will." Nimous sends Safron and Dirk into a sickening spiraling twister wave that throws them around.

Safron and Dirk splat down on a white surface and smiling heads appear and the whole place (including the heads) flash black and white and it has big letters that read, "YOU ARE AN IDIOT!!!" The heads say, "You are an idiot! Hah ha ha hah ha ha ha hah ha ha ha ha!" Dirk said, "Shut up!" Dirk jumps and punches one of the heads and it bounces around the venue. Dirk kicks it into the other balls and they go bouncing around. One of the balls hits the wall and it reveals the wall is a white cloth. Safron goes to it and she takes out her sword and she cuts the cloth. Safron said, "I think I found a way out of here." Safron and Dirk go behind the cloth and they end up in a dark room. Colorful dancers dressed in scantily clad start dancing around the place and glittery colored lights flash everywhere. Safron and Dirk run away from the dancers and they run into a dark abyss. Dirk said, "How big could this temple possibly be?" Safron said, "I don't think this is even the temple. That flying head is using strange Yin-Yangite magic on us or at least that is what he wants us to think."

Safron and Dirk keep walking and they end up in a red and black checkerboarded room and large yin-yangs appear above them. The circles in the yin-yangs begin sending out particle beams that completely destroy anything they touch. Safron and Dirk run away from the yin-yangs. Safron grabs out her skateboard and she drives it and Dirk jumps on. Safron skates really fast and she turns one way and then she turns the other way. She manipulates the yin-yangs into destroying each other with their own particle beams. Safron and Dirk get stopped by a tall man in red and white striped pants and he grabs onto them and he places them in a roller coaster. The rollercoaster speeds off and it does loop de loops and then it drives where there is no track. The coaster car explodes and Safron and Dirk fall from a great height. They smash into the ground and it shatters like glass. Safron and Dirk fall with the glass and they land in a maze where there are sculptures of Nimous' head on every wall and everything in the maze looks the same. Safron and Dirk walk through the maze. Dirk said, "Everything looks the same. I have no idea where we are going." Safron said, "Same here."

Safron and Dirk keep walking in circles in the maze. Nimous' head appears above them and he said, "Have you given up yet?" Safron said, "We are not giving up until we leave with Ivan." Nimous said, "That is never going to happen." Safron said, "We are going to keep looking for Ivan. Even if it takes a thousand years or more." Dirk looks at the sculptures of Nimous' head on the walls of the maze. Dirk grabs onto one of the sculptures and he twists it and it opens a door. Dirk said, "Hey, Safron. I think I found a way out of the maze." Safron and Dirk walk into the hidden door and they end up in an orange and brown brightly lit room. They see the Ultimate Yin-Yang and Ivan is there with his hands on it. Safron and Dirk said, "Ivan!" They run for him. Safron said, "Ivan. You have to get yourself out of there. It is taking over your mind." Nimous appears over them and he said, "He cannot hear you. Ivan is deeply connected with the Ultimate Yin-Yang. That is the way things are supposed to be." Safron grabs onto Ivan and she tries to pull him off but he is stuck on tight. Dirk and Safron both try to pull Ivan off but he is stuck on way too tight. Nimous said, "No amount of manpower would ever get Ivan off that thing. He is having the time of his life and he would not give it up for anything. I am the most powerful thing in the Ultraverse and Ivan is enjoying my gifts. My gifts are only for Yin-Yangites and not your petty human scum. Leave at once. I keep telling you. There is nothing you are going to get from me. There is nothing..." Dirk looks behind the flying head of Nimous and he sees a door and he sees a shadow of someone moving behind the door. Dirk goes to that door and he opens it. Nimous said, "There is no point in looking in that door. There is nothing you will get in there." Dirk goes in and he sees a guy at a recording studio with Nimous' voice and everything he says comes out of Nimous' mouth. Safron enters and she said, "So you are the real Nimous then." The guy in the recording studio is still doing Nimous' voice. Nimous said, "Ignore that guy. He is nothing." Dirk smacks the guy in the face and he turns off the power to all the equipment and he sees a large power switch on the wall. Dirk pulls the switch and the power to the Ultimate Yin-Yang shuts off and Ivan sees himself holding onto it. Ivan said, "What happened?"

Safron and Dirk grab onto the guy and they bring him to Ivan. Safron said, "This guy was manipulating you into thinking you found the Ultimate Yin-Yang." Dirk looks at the power downed Ultimate Yin-Yang and he said, "This can't be the Ultimate Yin-Yang." Dirk elbows it and it shatters. Dirk said, "It is made out of cheap glass." Safron looks at the guy and she said, "Do you have anything you want to say?" Ivan, Safron, and Dirk draw out their swords at the guy." The guy starts to panic. He said, "You don't know what it was like for me. Multisword took away everything I own and he said he would not give it back to me unless I played this role. Multisword somehow got access to that book Ivan has and he added sections to it. He made up a whole story about the Ultimate Yin-Yang and what it can do. He went ahead and manufactured one and a story for it so you would be stuck here for all eternity. I am just a pawn in all this. I swear.” Ivan said, “The whole Ultimate Yin-Yang story is fake?” The guy said, “It is. Multisword made it up. He made up a lot of the other things in that book.” Ivan said, “This book is filled with bullcrap.” The guy said, “Maybe not all of it. I saw that book before Multisword tampered with it. One thing in that book that is correct is a map that leads to the Yin-Yangite home-world. I went there on a mission with Multisword. He quite likes that place.” Ivan said, “Multisword must have some kind of plan to destroy the remaining Yin-Yangites or maybe he wants to use them to his advantage so he can rule the Ultraverse.” The guy said, “That’s how it seems.”

Ivan is in his house and he looks through his Yin-Yangite book. Safron enters. Safron said, “You shouldn’t take everything in that book at face value. You should consider the fact that the information in that book could be real or fake.” Ivan said, “I am starting to think more of this is fake. I have had this book for some time now and I have been going on adventures throughout the Ultraverse and it doesn’t seem like I am any closer to finding my father or finding the real truth about the Yin-Yangites. The information in this book does not cover everything. I even looked at that book Borgus wanted and it still seems like a lot is missing. I am starting to think Multisword may be behind everything and maybe him or someone like that crafted these books as part of their plan to rule over the Yin-Yangites.”
